PROFILE

Having spent my early years on the water along England's south coast, pursuing a career in yachting felt like an obvious path. Over the past year on a high-tempo charter yacht, I've gained hands-on experience across deck operations while putting my carpentry and finishing skills to practical use. The role has also sparked a growing passion for diving and watersports. I'm now ready to take the next step and build on this experience within a new environment.

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

I've always been drawn to life on the water, having competed in local regattas in the UK. Diving has become a major passion of mine, and I take every opportunity to be in or around the ocean. Outside of yachting, I like to stay active—cycling and spending time outdoors whenever possible.
